1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

These unaudited financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America for interim financial information. These financial statements are condensed and do not include all disclosures required for annual financial statements. The organization and business of the Company, accounting policies followed by the Company and other information are contained in the notes to the Company's audited consolidated financial statements filed as part of the Company's December 31, 2000 Form 10KSB.

In the opinion of the Company's management, these financial statements reflect all adjustments necessary to present fairly the Company's consolidated financial position at June 30, 2001 and December 31, 2000 and the consolidated results of operations and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the six months then ended. The results of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2001 are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the entire fiscal year.

2. STOCK OPTIONS

(a) Pursuant to a directors' resolution dated March 21, 2001, 300,000 options with an exercise price of $0.15 were awarded to one of the officers of the Company. All of these options will vest by September 1, 2001 and expire on March 21, 2003. On the date of the grant, the market price of the stock was less than the exercise price. Therefore, no compensation expense was recognized.

(b) Pursuant to a directors' resolution dated June 27, 2001, 100,000 options with an exercise price of $0.15 were awarded to employees of the Company. All of the options will vest by December 31, 2001 and expire on June 27, 2003. The Company applies APB opinion No. 25 and related interpretations in accounting for its stock options granted to employees, and accordingly compensation expense of $11,333 was recognized as salaries expense.

Had compensation expense been determined as provided in SFAS 123 using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model, the pro-forma effect on the Company's net income and per share amounts would have been as follows:

	2001
Net income, as reported	$166,404
Net income, pro-forma	$155,737
Net income per share, as reported	$ 0.01
Net income per share, pro-forma	$ 0.01

3. FUTURE INCOME TAXES

It is the Company's estimate that the tax assets will not be realized in the immediate future. Therefore, a tax asset arising from the Company's loss carryforwards has been reduced by a valuation allowance to zero.

ITEM 2: MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATION

August 13, 2001

Quarterly Report (SEC form 10-QSB)

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS
(All figures are in thousands of US dollars)

OVERVIEW

Poker.com Inc is a licensing and marketing company that licenses turnkey Internet gaming systems and has the exclusive worldwide rights to market the poker.com domain name. The Company's main sources of revenue are derived from sub-licensing fees, ongoing royalty fees, and banner advertising.

Casino Marketing, SA (a wholly owned subsidiary of Poker.com Inc) sells Casino and Poker card room sub-licenses and derives its revenue from the sub-licensing fees and royalty payments. Casino Marketing currently has the master license agreement with Starnet Systems International to sell their on line gaming software, and with Transnet International Inc. to sell their Poker card room systems. The Company recently entered into a letter of intent with Fairwinds Technologies Inc. to acquire a Master license to sell Casino & Poker games on Wireless Application Protocol (WAP) through Trimon Systems International. The contract was not consummated, as Fairwind Technology Inc. believed it was in the best interest for Poker.com to deal directly with Trimon Systems Inc. On July 31, 2001 a contract was entered into with Trimon Systems Inc. and Poker.com.

Poker.com's mission is to become the World's preferred site for Poker. Poker.com is committed to provide a secure place to play, information you can trust, and an opportunity to learn.

6

RESULTS OF CONTINUING OPERATIONS

The following table sets forth for the periods indicated selected information from Poker.com's consolidated statement of operations:

	Three Months Ended June 30, 2001	Three Months Ended June 30, 2000
--	--	--

(IN THOUSANDS)

Net Sales	349	320
Gross Margin	333	255
Operating Expenses	297	378
Income (loss) from continuing operations	36	(123)
Net (loss) Income	36	(123)

Information shown is for the three months ended June 30, 2001 and June 30, 2000 respectively.

THREE-MONTH PERIOD ENDED JUNE 30, 2001

NET SALES. Net sales for the three months ended June 30, 2001 was $349 compared to $320 for the three months ended June 30, 2000 as the company was still in the development stage. Sub-license revenues were $17, banner advertising revenues were $172 and royalty fees were $159 for the three months ended June 30, 2001 respectively. Sub-license revenues decreased over Q1 due to the sale of licenses not being operational. Under the revenue recognition principle revenue cannot be recorded until the software contract has been significantly completed. Sub-license fees for the quarter ended June 30, 2000 was $68, banner advertising revenues were $171 and royalty fees were $76 for the three months ended June 30, 2000 respectively.

Management expects to increase the revenues derived from the sale of Casino and Poker cardrooms. Management also believes that royalty revenue derived from the sale of casino and Poker cardrooms will continue to improve as new sub-licences revenues increase and the number of cardrooms also increases. These are forward-looking statements, particularly as related to the business plans of the company, within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1993 and Sections 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and are subject to the safe harbor created by these sections. Actual results may differ materially from the company's expectations and estimates.

GROSS MARGIN. Gross margin was 95.5% of net sales for the three months ended June 30, 2001 compared to 79.5% in 2000. Management believes the margin is consistent with licensing and marketing of turnkey Internet gaming systems. Poker.com's gross margin may be affected by several factors including (i) the mix of revenue streams, (ii) the price of products sold and (iii) other components of cost of sales.

OPERATING EXPENSES. Operating expenses for the three month ended June 30, 2001 was $297 compared to $377 June 30, 2000. The major expense items were for website marketing to direct traffic to the Poker.com's portal and to develop the Company's name brand. With the changes in both the internet and on-line gaming market, Management devised an alternative strategy to reach users using several different methods of advertising that proved to be very cost effective.

PROVISION FOR INCOME TAXES. No tax provision was made for the three months ended June 30, 2001. At December 31, 2000 the Company had an available net operating loss carry forward of approximately $405 that may be used to offset future taxable income. As of June 30, 2001 the net operating loss carry forward is approximately $369.

7

FINANCIAL CONDITION AND LIQUIDITY

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES. At June 30, 2001 the Company had cash and cash equivalents totaling $164 compared to $1 at March 31, 2001 and $42 at December 31, 2000. The increase in cash is mainly due from payments received from customers even though the accounts receivable were rising due to an increase in the monthly royalties from sub-licences.

Approximately $498 of the $743 accounts receivable and long term receivable was due from Antico Holdings for the purchase of a Poker sub-license and Royalty fees. The amount due from Antico Holdings for their License fee was re-negotiated with the terms of $6 per month commencing March 2001. Antico Holdings has assigned to Poker.com Inc the 15% credit card hold back that is being released each month on a rolling month-to-month basis.

Net cash provided by operating activities for the six months ended June 30, 2001 was $117. The increase in cash was mainly due to the operating activities of the company.

Net cash (used) for investing activities for the six months ended June 30, 2001 was ($13). The cash was used for the purchase of additional intangible assets and equipment.

Net cash provided by financing activities for the six months ended June 30, 2001 was $12. The cash was provided through the issuance of stock options.
