LEGALPLAY ENTERTAINMENT INC.
NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
March 31, 2005
(Stated in US Dollars)
(Unaudited)

Note 1 Consolidated Financial Statements

These unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the same basis as the annual financial statements and in the opinion of management, reflect all adjustments, which include only normal recurring adjustments, necessary to present fairly the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flows for the periods shown.

The results of operations for such periods are not necessarily indicative of the results expected for a full year or for any future period.

The Company's auditor, Amisano Hanson Chartered Accountants, has not reviewed the financial statements and Form 10-QSB, for the period ending March 31st 2005.

Note 2 Basis of Presentation

These unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America for interim financial information. These financial statements are condensed and do not include all disclosures required for annual financial statements. The organization and business of the Company, accounting policies followed by the Company and other information are contained in the notes to the Company's audited consolidated financial statements filed as part of the Company's December 31, 2004 Form 10-KSB.

In the opinion of the Company's management, these financial statements reflect all adjustments necessary to present fairly the Company's consolidated financial position as at March 31st 2005, the consolidated results of operations for the three months ended March 31st 2005 and 2004 and the consolidated cash flows for the three months ended March 31st 2005 and 2004. The results of operations for the three months ended March 31st 2005 are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the entire fiscal year.

Note 3 Going Concern

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America on a going-concern basis. This presumes funds will be available to finance on-going development, operations and capital expenditures and the realization of assets and the payment of liabilities in the normal course of operations for the foreseeable future. Management intends to raise additional capital through share issuances to finance operations and invest in other business opportunities.

The Company has a working capital deficit of $33,288 at March 31st

2005, minimal other capital resources presently available to meet obligations which can normally be expected to be incurred by similar companies and has a loss of $12,289 for the three months ended March 31st 2005.

These financial statements do not give effect to any adjustments to the amounts and classification of assets and liabilities, which might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

These factors raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going-concern, which is dependent on the Company's ability to obtain and maintain an appropriate level of financing on a timely basis and to achieve sufficient cash flows to cover obligations and expenses.

Note 4 Due to Related Parties

The Company owes a past President of the Company, Mark Glusing, CDN$15,465.26 in management fees. This debt is unsecured, non-interest bearing and has no specific terms for payment.

The Company is in debt to Ubiquity Management Inc., a company under the control of Mark Glusing, for operational expenses paid on behalf of the Company. The debt owing is CDN$26,663.47 and was secured by a promissory note with 5% interest. The promissory note has since expired and the debt is still owing with no specific terms of repayment.

Note 5 Contingent Liabilities

(a) On December 2nd 2002, the Company entered into an "Assignment of Trademark Agreement" with Ala Corp. Ala Corp. was subsequently in default under this Agreement and on November 17th 2004, the Company instructed their solicitors to commence legal proceedings against Ala Corp. A writ was issued for the trademark dispute but was not pursued as it was consolidated into the Settlement Agreement entered into in 2005 (see "Subsequent Events" for additional details.)

(b) The Company is a plaintiff in a lawsuit initiated by Uninet Technologies Inc. ("Uninet"), the master licensee, against ALA, the owner of the Poker.com URL/domain name. The master licensee sold a sublicense to the Company, granting it the exclusive use of the URL/domain name for a period of 99 years. The owner of the URL/domain name is accused of wrongfully breaching the license agreement by assigning the URL/domain name to a different company.

On November 9, 2004, the Company entered into an Agreement with Uninet in regards to compensating Uninet for their agreement to prosecute the civil action (and advance legal fees) against Ala Corp and Communication Services Inc. The payment terms pursuant to the Agreement were as follows:

1. For prosecuting the action against Ala Corp., Uninet will be entitled to a 50% ownership in the rights of the URL "www.poker.com". Therefore, entitling Uninet to receive 50% of all revenue received by the Company in using and/or re-licensing the URL to a third party.

2. In the event that the Company is unable to continue to contribute fees to the proposed legal action to recover the rights to the URL "www.poker.com", but UniNet advances legal fees, the Company hereby agrees to assign 90% of its right, title and interest in and to the use of the URL to Uninet. In this regard, the Company irrevocably undertakes to allow Uninet to act for and/or represent the Company in order to continue prosecuting the joint action against CSI and any other action that Uninet believes should be taken against Ala Corp and/or CSI, for which costs Uninet will be responsible.

The Company was unable to continue to contribute fees to the legal action to recover the URL, poker.com and, therefore, was unable to meet the terms and conditions of the November 9th 2004 Agreement with Uninet.

LEGALPLAY ENTERTAINMENT INC.
Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements
March 31, 2005
(Stated in US Dollars)
(Unaudited)

As a result of Uninet's continuing funding of the legal fees, the Company entered into an Assignment Agreement with Uninet on December 29th 2004, whereby the Company assigned to Uninet 90% of the right, title and interest in and to the use of the URL, poker.com. In the event a settlement occurs between Ala Corp and/or Communication Services Inc., Uninet shall be entitled to receive 90% of the said settlement.

In April 2005, the parties negotiated a Settlement Agreement. Please see "Subsequent Events" for additional details.

- (c) The Company will be liable for damages to Antico Holdings S.A. for failure to provide use of the URL, as per their agreement, and may not be able to collect the outstanding receivable of $591,048. (see "Subsequent Events" for additional information.)

Note 6 Subsequent Events

- (i) The Company and SkillPoker were in default under the terms and conditions of the Blue Diamond Agreement who gave written notice to cancel the Agreement and take back the assignment of the inventions.

On April 14th 2005, SkillPoker and Blue Diamond entered into an Assignment Agreement. For consideration of the sum of $1.00, SkillPoker assigned to Blue Diamond the inventions and patents known as:

Country	Serial Number	Filing Date
United States	60/393,736	July 8, 2002
United States	10/614,752	July 8, 2003

- (ii) In 2004, Genius Goods Inc. and the Company agreed to transfer the URL, poker.cc, back to Genius Goods. The transfer took place on April 22nd 2005 and all dealings between the two companies have been subsequently terminated without further contingent liability.
- (iii) On April 25th 2005, the Company reached a Settlement Agreement with Ala Corp. regarding the dispute over the URL/domain name and trademark dispute. The Settlement Agreement outlined the following terms:

- Communication Services Inc. will pay to the counsel for Uninet and LegalPlay, Kornfeld Mackoff Silber, in trust, US$435,000 for distribution to both Uninet and LegalPlay.
- Ala Corp., and associated parties, agree to transfer to LegalPlay, or as they may direct, all of their right, title or interest in their 2,403,400 common shares of LegalPlay Entertainment.

(iv) On April 25th 2005, the Company entered into a Settlement Agreement ("Agreement") with Communication Services Inc. ("CSI") and Ala Corp. The Agreement stated that the Company no longer had any interest in or claim to the domain name, www.poker.com or the U.S. Trademarks "Poker.com" and "Poker.com The Ultimate Gaming Connection Design". The domain name and trademarks are now the sole property of CSI.

As a result of the Agreement, the Company received $42,000 and 250,000 common shares of LegalPlay.

(v) As a result of the URL/domain name settlement, Antico Holdings S.A. ("Antico") was denied the use of the poker.com URL and suffered substantial damages.

LEGALPLAY ENTERTAINMENT INC.
Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements
March 31, 2005
(Stated in US Dollars)
(Unaudited)

Antico refused to pay the Company the amount of $591,048 until the URL had been reinstated and had demanded restitution of the URL or damages.

The parties agreed that the damages that Antico suffered substantially exceeded the amount that was owing to LegalPlay. However, Antico agreed that they would not commence legal action for damages on the condition that LegalPlay write off the debt of $591,048.

(vi) After the settlement with Ala Corp., the Company had the financial resources to pay the accounting and legal fees incurred in completing regulatory filings for the SEC. On June 17th 2005, the Company filed an amendment to the Form 15-12(g) previously filed with the SEC on March 18th 2005. The amendment stated that the Company wished to withdraw their request to terminate their obligations as a reporting issuer. The company may not be successful in withdrawing their request, which is subject to filing the December 31 2004 Form 10-KSB and March 31 2005 and June 30 2005 Form 10-QSBs with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission in a timely manner.

(vii) On July 15th 2005, the Company issued 900,000 common shares, representing 2.71%, of LegalPlay to the directors of the Company, as settlement for outstanding director's fees totalling US$9,000. The debt was settled at an exchange price per common share of $0.01 and the shares were issued under the conditions of Rule 144 and contain the appropriate restrictive legend.

QUARTERLY REPORT (SEC FORM 10-QSB)

ITEM 2. MANAGERMENTS' DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

OVERVIEW

We continued to operate through our three subsidiary companies: Casino Marketing S.A., a Costa Rican registered company; 564448 BC Ltd., a British Columbia registered company; and Skill Poker.com Inc., a Washington state registered company incorporated January 29, 2003.

Our current business strategy is to develop our own Poker software and market the software to on-line gaming sites worldwide.

The litigation in relation to the domain name dispute relating to Poker.com continued during the first quarter of 2005 and a Settlement Agreement was reached between the parties in April 2005.

We are in immediate need of further working capital and are considering options with respect to financing in the form of debt, equity or a combination thereof.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND ESTIMATES

We have adopted various accounting policies that govern the application of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America in the preparation of our financial statements. Our significant accounting policies are described in the footnotes to our financial statements at December 31, 2004. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires us to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes.

Although these estimates are based on our knowledge of current events and actions we may undertake in the future, they may ultimately differ from actual results. Certain accounting policies involve significant judgments and assumptions by us, which have a material impact on our financial condition and results. Management believes its critical accounting policies reflect its most significant estimates and assumptions used in the presentation of our financial statements. Our critical accounting policies include revenue recognition, accounting for stock based compensation and the evaluation of the recoverability of long-lived and intangible assets. We do not have off-balance sheet arrangements, financings, or other relationships with unconsolidated entities or other persons, also known as "special purpose entities".

THREE-MONTH PERIOD ENDED MARCH 31 2005

RESULTS OF CONTINUING OPERATIONS

The following table sets forth for the periods indicated selected information from LegalPlay Entertainment Inc.'s consolidated financial statements of operations:

NET SALES. Net sales for the three months ended March 31 2005 were $5,000 compared to $0 for the three months ended March 31 2004.

We expect to enhance our revenues through the consideration of other business opportunities. There can be no assurances we will be able to identify any business opportunities which will benefit us. These are forward-looking statements, particularly as related to the business plans of the Company, within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Sections 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and are subject to the safe harbor created by these sections. Actual results may differ materially from our expectations and estimates.

EXPENSES. Operating expenses for the three months ended March 31 2005 were $17,289 compared to $147,326 for the three months ended March 31 2004. The major expense items for the three months ended March 31 2005 were professional fees of $12,303, as compared to $24,164 for the three months ended March 31, 2004.

PROVISION FOR INCOME TAXES. No tax provision was made for the three months ended March 31, 2005.

FINANCIAL CONDITION AND LIQUIDITY

On March 31 2005, our net working capital was $33,288 compared to a net working capital of $58,363 at December 31, 2004. At March 31 2005, the Company had cash and cash equivalents totaling $4,211 compared to December 31, 2004 the Company had cash and cash equivalents totaling $18,262. We are in immediate need of further working capital and are considering options with respect to financing in the form of debt, equity or a combination thereof, and may also consider disposing of assets as a method through which to raise additional working capital.

Net cash used for operating activities for the three months ended March 31 2005 was $3,765. The decrease in cash was mainly due to developing and marketing the Skill Poker system, legal fees relating to the URL dispute and general office operations.

Net cash used for investing activities for the three months ended March 31, 2005 was $0.

Net cash provided by financing activities for the three months ended March 31, 2005 was $0.

The Company's ability to continue as a going concern and fund operations through the remainder of 2005 is contingent upon its ability to raise funds through equity or debt financing.

ITEM 3. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

- (i) We maintain disclosure controls and procedures that are designed to ensure that information we are required to disclose in our Securities Exchange Act of 1934 reports is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms, and that such information is accumulated and communicated to our management, including its Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

Within 91 days prior to the date of this report, our management carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures pursuant to Exchange Act Rule 13a-14. Based upon the foregoing, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures are effective in connection with the filing of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-QSB for the period ended March 31 2005.

- (ii) There were no significant changes in our internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect these controls subsequent to the date of their evaluation, including any significant deficiencies or material weaknesses of internal controls that would require corrective action.

PART II--OTHER INFORMATION

ITEM 1. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

On December 6, 2002, the domain www.poker.com was re-directed without our consent or knowledge by Ala Corp., a company registered under the laws of Antigua and whose principal is Liz Bryce of Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada. The domain was originally licensed from Ala Corp. to Uninet Technologies Inc. ("Uninet") in 1999. Uninet immediately sub-licensed the domain to us. In turn, we sub-licensed the domain to Antico Holdings S.A. of Costa Rica for the operating casino and/or card rooms. We retained all other rights to the domain name including developing the web site as a portal, marketing casinos and card rooms and other gaming software.

As of March 31st 2005, Liz Bryce, through Ala Corp., owned 1,297,900 shares of our common stock or 3.81% of our issued and outstanding common stock. In addition, Ms. Bryce's parents collectively own 1,105,500 shares or 3.24% of our common stock. Ms. Bryce, together with her parents, owns directly and indirectly, a total of 2,403,400 shares or 7.05% of our common stock. As part of the Settlement Agreement entered into between the Company and Ala Corp. on April 25th 2005, Liz Bryce and her parents agreed to transfer their shareholdings in LegalPlay Entertainment Inc. to the Company and Uninet Technologies Inc.

Although contemplated in the agreements between Ala Corp. and Uninet and between Uninet and us, Ala Corp. failed to provide Uninet or us with any notice that it was redirecting the domain. As such, we were unaware of any allegations of contractual breach and management is of the opinion that all obligations, as set forth by the terms and conditions of the agreements, have been fulfilled and we are not aware of any reason for this dispute.

We agreed with Uninet (who would be entitled to 50% of the URL if they co-joined an action) to jointly pursue all legal avenues available to retain the exclusive right to use www.poker.com and to enforce the provisions of the agreement between Ala Corp. and Uninet.

After the domain was redirected, Ala Corp. transferred the registered owner of the domain to Communications Services Inc. ("CSI"), a company registered in Western Samoa and the registrar was changed from California based Verisign Inc. to Australia based Fabulous.com.

Together with Uninet, we applied to The Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (ICANN), a governing body which oversees domain registration and use issues, for the purpose of obtaining a decision on the basis of the wrongful redirection of www.poker.com. ICANN, however, ruled on January 21, 2003 that since the domain is now registered in the name of Communication Services Inc., it could only decide on a dispute between Ala Corp., the previous registered owner of the domain and CSI. Together with Uninet, we did not have any standing to apply for relief with ICANN since neither of us were ever the registered owner of the domain name.

On February 28, 2003, together with Uninet, we sued CSI in the Supreme Court of British Columbia, Canada for a declaration that as a successor and assignee of Ala Corp., CSI is a trustee of the domain name for the benefit of Uninet and us:

- an accounting for profits earned by Communication through the wrongful use of the domain an accounting for profits earned by CSI through the wrongful use of the domain name
 - a declaration that Ala and Communication are bound by the License Agreement between Ala and Uninet
 - a declaration that Uninet and us are entitled to the exclusive use of the domain name.

On November 3, 2003, we received notice from the Supreme Court of British Columbia that we were successful in establishing a substantial connection between the claims CSI was making and the jurisdiction in British Columbia. LegalPlay Entertainment Inc. can therefore pursue its case against CSI in British Columbia in connection with the litigation regarding the URL www.poker.com. Parallel arbitration proceedings against Ala Corp. remain under way.

In 2004, together with Uninet, we proceeded to arbitration (in accordance with the terms and conditions of the agreement) with Ala Corp. in Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada to assert Uninet and our rights under the agreements. We selected the mutually acceptable arbitrator, Fasken Martineau DuMoulin LLP.

In the meantime, together with Uninet, we requested that the current registrar, Fabulous.com impose a lock on the domain name, www.poker.com, pending the outcome of the Supreme Court action and the arbitration which means the domain cannot be transferred to either another owner or to another registrar.

As mentioned above, we sub-licensed the domain name to Antico Holdings S.A. ("Antico") of Costa Rica to use the domain for operating casinos and/or card rooms. Antico notified us that it had ceased all payments of royalties payable to us pending resolution to the dispute over the right to use the domain. It is anticipated that Antico will allege that we are responsible for damages incurred by Antico as a result of the dispute. We intend to defend any claims and will appropriately claim similarly against Uninet Technologies Inc., Ala Corp. and CSI.

On April 25th 2005, the Company reached a Settlement Agreement with Ala Corp. regarding the dispute over the URL/domain name and trademark dispute. Please see Note 6, "Subsequent Events", on page F-12 of the financial statement notes for additional details.

To the knowledge of management, no federal, state or local governmental agency is presently contemplating any proceedings against us. Other than as described above, no director, executive officer or affiliate thereof or owner of record or beneficially of more than five percent of our common stock is a party adverse to or has a material interest adverse to us in any proceeding.
